

12th Annual Workshop on Topology and Dynamical Systems
Nipissing University, May 25–29, 2015
<http://topology.nipissingu.ca/workshop2015/>

On lattice of maps

Andrzej Kucharski (University of Silesia)
akuchar@ux2.math.us.edu.pl

Abstract: Characterizations of skeletally Dugundji spaces and Dugundji spaces are given in terms of club collections, consisting of countable families of co-zero sets. For example, a Tychonoff space X is skeletally Dugundji if and only if there exists an additive c -club on X . Dugundji spaces are characterized by the existence of additive d -clubs.