

15th Annual Workshop on Topology and Dynamical Systems
Nipissing University, May 21–25, 2018
<http://topology.nipissingu.ca/workshop2018/>

n -Arc connected graphs and graph-like spaces

Paul Gartside (University of Pittsburgh)
gartside@math.pitt.edu

Abstract: A space X is n -arc connected (n -ac) if any set of no more than n points is contained in an arc. We characterize combinatorially when graphs are n -ac, for some n . We then explore extensions to compactifications of graphs, and graph-like continua.