

15th Annual Workshop on Topology and Dynamical Systems
Nipissing University, May 21–25, 2018
<http://topology.nipissingu.ca/workshop2018/>

The Mapper algorithm and its applications

Boris Goldfarb (University at Albany, State University of New York)
bgoldfarb@albany.edu

Abstract: The first half of the talk will introduce the Mapper which is a subtle tool used in Topological Data Analysis for data visualization, dimension reduction, and other purposes. In the second half I will show some recent applications of the Mapper in data science.